Stelios Philanthropic Foundation Greece

Donation of 10,000 euros to the next of kin of each person that lost their lives at the tragic collision of trains at Tempi, Greece on the 1st of March 2023

The tragic collision of trains in Tempi, Greece, on March 1, 2023 is an event that shocked everyone. The Stelios Philanthropic Foundation wishes to offer some financial support to the families of the deceased. For this reason, in line with our prior in 2018 after the tragic fires in Mati, Greece the foundation will offer a donation of 10,000 euros to the next of kin of each person deceased from the collision of trains at tempi Greece.

Specifically, a financial assistance of 10,000 euros will be given by bank transfer to the bank account of the closest relative, up to second degree, each deceased following their written application accompanied by the appropriate supporting documents. More information about the application procedure is available on our website <https://steliosfoundation.gr/> or by calling + (30) 210 721 6060 Monday to Friday, 10am to 2pm.

The application process will be open from Tuesday, March 7, 2023 to Tuesday, May 2, 2023. The payments made by bank transfer to the bank account of the next of kin and will be completed by May 15, 2023, for those who have successfully completed the application.

Sir Stelios Haji-loannou stated: "I was extremely saddened by the tragic train accident in Tempi Greece. We want to support the families of the deceased and with our condolences we are offering this small direct financial assistance to the relatives at this difficult time."
